Welcome to Charity Chatter, a guide to upcoming fund-raising and special events for local non-profit organizations.

Friday, August 10

Children's Summer Theater: Believe in Books Literacy Foundation is pleased to announce the return of our Children's Summer Theater Series! Presented by Jean's Playhouse and IMPACT Children's Theatre, these original plays with unique songs present a new twist on classic tales. Visit us each Friday at 10am to learn more about your favorite characters. Today's performance is Little Bo Peep and the Beautiful Owl. Little Bo Peep has lost her sheep...or has she? It seems that it wasn't only Bo's fault that the sheep disappeared that day. In the process of trying to find them and bring them home, Bo comes across a strange family and a beautiful owl who lives outside their home. There is something quite mysterious about this owl and Bo refuses to leave until she discovers just what it is! For more information, call 356-9980.

Wonders of the Watershed: Green Mountain Conservation Center's Wonders of the Watershed Summer Series - Create Your Own Map Artistic Workshop is held at 10am at Blue Heron House, in Effingham. Throughout history maps have guided explorers and helped us understand our place in the world. Come and explore map making in a new way. Create your own birds-eye view map using provided art materials. You will also have the opportunity to learn about GIS mapping and Geocaching. Help us build and hide a geocache on our property! Folks are encouraged to explore the many ecosystems on the property and enjoy their picnic lunch by the river. All ages are welcome.

BHS Annual Yard Sale: Bartlett Historical Society is sponsoring a giant Yard Sale on the grounds of the Josiah Bartlett Elementary School from 12noon-6pm. Huge selection of items - Kitchenware, houseware, glassware, antiques, children's toys, games, puzzles, furniture, postcards, tools, craft items, books, sporting goods, holiday items. Something for everyone. Proceeds to benefit the Bartlett Historical Society capital campaign for the renovation of St. Joseph Church. Questions contact Phil Franklin, 374-5023 or Norm Head, 986-6278. Please help support a good cause and find some new treasures for your home.

AMC Highland Happenings: The Highland Center will host an Art Opening, featuring artist Linda Gray. Join local artist Linda Gray at 5pm for a social hour and hors d'oeuvre in celebration of her new exhibit in the Mt. Willard Dining Room. A Celebration of National S'mores Day follows at 7:30pm. Join us for a campfire and a celebration of your favorite campfire treat. Call to find out more, 278-4453.

An Evening with Maine Authors: An Evening with Maine Authors to benefit Camp Susan Curtis will feature readings by the remarkable Shetterly family: Susan Hand Shetterly, author of "Settled in the Wild", the 2018 ReadME pick; Margot Lee Shetterly, author of "Hidden Figures", the New York Times bestseller that inspired the Academy Award nominated film; and Aran Shetterly, author of "The Americano", the epic story of the Ohioan who gave his life for the Cuban Revolution. Readings will be preceded by cocktails, silent auction and farm fresh buffet dinner at the Pleasant Point Inn. For more information, call (207) 939-9916. Tickets are available at Spice & Grain, in Fryeburg or Charlotte Hobbs Library, in Lovell.

Friday Fireside Gathering: 7-8:30pm. Enjoy the great outdoors beside a warming campfire on the grounds of Remick Country Doctor Museum & Farm in Tamworth Village. Join us as we share information about animals, vegetables, minerals, or another topic that is sure to pique your interest. The event is free, though donations are appreciated. Calling ahead to let us know you are coming is helpful, but walk-ins are always welcome. This event is weather dependent; please call ahead if inclement weather is in the forecast; 323-7591.

August: Osage County: M&D Playhouse presents "August: Osage County" at 7:30pm. A vanished father; a pill-popping mother; three sisters harboring shady little secrets. When the large Weston family unexpectedly reunites after Dad disappears, their Oklahoman family homestead explodes in a maelstrom of repressed truths and unsettling secrets. Mix in Violet, the drugged-up, scathingly acidic matriarch, and you've got a major new play that unflinchingly—and uproariously—exposes the dark side of the Midwestern American family. The show runs

Monday, August 13

Magic of Woods & Water: This is a week of daily opportunities to slow down, observe, experience and celebrate the magic that happens when we spend time in nature noticing what's around us and within us. Nature journals, sketching, walking meditation, conversation and more. Kid track and adult track. The 9am-12noon Chocorua Lake Conservancy events will be led by Lynne Flaccus, Ed Parsons and others, in collaboration with The Yeoman's Fund for the Arts.

Summer Theater Camp: Believe in Books Summer Theater Camp is a day-camp that is theater & story based. At Believe in Books Literacy Foundation, we believe in the healthy development of young minds through literacy programs that encourage early reading, imagination, and physical activity. Campers will be encompassed in the performing arts as they learn the basics of storytelling and performance. In addition, they will experience daily doses of fun camp games and walks through our wonderful trail system. Throughout the day, campers will experience the art of how stories can take us on a magical journey through our imagination, and will then get to make those stories come to life. August 13th – August 17th offers "The Hilarious History of America (Abridged)". The passage of time often has a way of rewriting history, or at least how it's interpreted... Take a trip down memory lane and get reintroduced to the roots of America-the beautiful with a bit of a hilarious twist! All campers will be notified of registration status via email, once payment is processed. If you have any questions or concerns, you can call or stop by our office during regular business hours, or you can send an email to our Theater Manager, Nate Sawyer at nate@believeinbooks.org.

Kids' Rock Camp: Mountain Top Music Center presents a four-day experience with Chad Cummings for young players who are starting their journeys into group music-making. Past groups have composed and played their own original pieces! The class runs from

Spotlight: It Takes a Valley Art Show & Silent Auction

Mount Washington Valley Promotions reached out to local artists to create an Art Show and Silent Auction back in the spring. The theme was "It Takes A Valley" and all of the artists were welcome to interpret as they desired. Participating artists range in age from 14 to 73 and their styles are varied.

Many people saw the works at the Home, Garden, Flower Show in May, but for the month of August the pieces are on display at the Conway Public Library.

On Wednesday evening, August 15, most of the artists will join us for a reception/meet & greet from 6:00

-7:30pm. Please join us for light refreshments and to view the works of: Carol Hanson, Anna Peare, Maryann Eastman, Deb Samia, Amelia Severy, Brandy Hewitt-Whitcher, Kelly Rogers, Abby Novak, Fred Ainsworth, Lisa DuFault, Eileen English, Tricia Chatman, Jane-Marie Kenny and Michelle DuFault. You may bid on your favorite(s), with the Silent Auction concluding in September.

Spotlight: 30th Bach Festival

30th Annual Celebration of the Music of J. S. Bach returns to North Conway for three-day Festival

White Mountain Musical Arts announces the 30th annual presentation of the Bach Festival, a favorite Baroque music weekend in the Mt. Washington Valley on Friday, Saturday and Sunday, August 24, 25, & 26, 2018.

In observance of the 30th Bach Festival, WMMA is adding a Friday evening Home Concert on August 24th at 7 PM. The concert will feature duo pianists Duncan Cumming and Floyd Corson, vocalist contralto Emily Marvosh, flutist Doris Henney, and bassoonist Nancy Goldenhar. Tickets are $35 and must be purchased in advance at wmma@roadrunner.com or 603.662.9942. Directions to the location will be provided to reservation holders mid-week before the event. Light refreshments will be served.

The weekend celebration continues with two additional opportunities to hear the music of J. S. Bach performed by chorus, orchestra and soloists in a festival setting on Saturday, August 25th at 7:30 PM and Sunday, August 26th at 4:30 PM at the First Church of Christ, Congregational in North Conway.

The Saturday and Sunday programs will offer two completely different concerts presenting instrumental and vocal music featuring small groups, soloists and the Bach Festival Chorus and Orchestra performing under the direction of Dr. Robert Lehmann. The performers include musicians from the greater New England region as well as local residents of the Conway/Fryeburg area. Tickets are $20 in advance and will be available for $25 at the door.

Thursday, August 16

Remick Apprentice: All About Textiles 9am-1pm, August 16 & 17. At Remick Country Doctor Museum & Farm in Tamworth Village, Apprentices begin by visiting the dye garden and learn how different plants make different dye colors. After selecting two or three dye colors they learn to dye wool. As the dyed wool is drying, students learn to card and spin yarn using a spinning hook and drop spindles. The history of wool in England, the American colonies, and how a spy named Francis Cabot Lowell started the Industrial Revolution in America will be covered, as will breeds of sheep. Apprentices will weave a bookmark, be creative with needle felting, work on a small hooked rug project, and learn a few knitting stitches: knit, purl, rib, and how to cast on and cast off. Class size is limited; registration closes Monday, August 13 or when filled. The program is suitable for students ages 12-16. Call 323-7591.

Mt. Washington Auto Road Bicycle Hillclimb: Now in its 46th year, the Mt. Washington Auto Road Bicycle Hillclimb attracts Olympians, hardcore bicycle road racers, mountain bikers, triathletes, all-around adventure athletes, tandem teams and even the occasional unicyclist. They are drawn to this grueling event by the Hillclimb's reputation as the toughest uphill race in America, a reputation enhanced not only by the steepness of the road but also by Mt. Washington's notorious winds and unpredictable precipitation. This year's race starts at 8:35am, with the Top Notch (elite) riders, followed by the rest of the cyclists in four waves at five-minute intervals. Funds raised benefit Tin Mountain Conservation Center.

Wednesday, August 22

Farm Breakfast & Chores: 9–11am. Rise with the roosters, then gather at Remick Country Doctor Museum & Farm in Tamworth Village for a delicious and hearty farm-fresh breakfast followed by morning farm chores. Breakfast is served al fresco and might include eggs, breakfast meats, and/or pancakes served with our own maple syrup. Farm chores include gathering eggs, watering and feeding the animals, and cleaning some barn stalls. Please let us know of any food and insect allergies. Participants are required to wear appropriate closed-toe footwear and we suggest bringing bug spray, sunscreen, a hat, and gloves. Space is limited; pre-paid reservations are required. Reservations close the Tuesday prior or when filled. Call 323-7591.

Campers 4 a Cause: Magic 104 will be setting up "camp" at Hill's RVs in Center Conway from 10am-5pm collecting donations for End 68 Hours of Hunger/ Conway! We will have tons of prizes to give away courtesy of Monkey Trunks, Kahuna Laguna Water Park, Wildcat Mountain, and more! Plus, you'll be able to tour some of the amazing RVs Hill's has to offer!

Cone for a Cause: Each Wednesday, Trails End Ice Cream Shop, in Intervale, will donate a 10% of the day's sales to a local non-profit or charitable cause. Stop by today from 12noon-9pm and help out Tin Mountain Conservation Center.

Beekeeping 101: At 1pm in the Madison Library John F. Chick room, Michael Smith of Loon's Point Honey Bees in Madison will discuss beekeeping for the beginner and will bring an observational beehive to view. This program is free and open to the public. Call 367-8545 for more information.

Concerts in the Park: Bartlett Recreation Department presents their 2018 Concerts in the Park series, from 6:30-8pm. This evening's musicians are The Bear Mountain Band. Bring a chair or blanket to the Bartlett Community Park. Concerts are free though donations are graciously accepted! Hot dogs, hamburgers, soda and chips are for sale by Bartlett Rec.

Thursday, August 23

Hike to Church Pond Bog: Church Pond is a beautiful but seldom visited peatland in Albany and Livermore. At over 100-acres it is the largest bog in the WMNF. The round-trip hike is just over two miles and is relatively flat, but does require knee-deep wading across the Swift River twice so bring wading shoes and dry socks. We will have lunch at a knoll topped with red pines overlooking the pond. The Tin Mountain Conservation Center trek meets at the Downes Brook Trailhead at 9am. Call 447-6991 to register.

Summer Discovery Day: Green Thumb Academy,

9am–1pm. One in a series of half-day learning experiences for kids at Remick Country Doctor Museum & Farm in Tamworth Village. During this Discovery Day, students enjoy a seed planting, weed pulling, bug-squishing good time. Students begin by examining what plants need to survive and thrive before heading out into the Remick garden. They get their hands dirty as they learn how our food grows. Everyone tries their hand at planting, tending, and harvesting some of the garden delights. Students sample some of the fruits of the season that they harvest themselves. The Academy is suitable for students ages 7–11. Class size is limited. Registration closes Monday, August 20 or when filled. Call 323-7591.

Weekly Nature Walk: Come explore the mountain that Tin Mountain Conservation Center was founded on. Numerous hikes are planned and will be led by Tin Mountain Education Staff. Participants will meet at the lower parking lot at Tin Mountain Field Station, (off of Tin Mine Road), in Jackson at 10am. Reservations and payment must be made by calling 447-6991. Children are welcome.

Naturalist Led Boat Cruise: Tin Mountain Conservation Center is teaming up with Fish Nerds Guide Service to offer 90-minute boat cruises on scenic Silver Lake in Madison. The trip will be leave from the town boat launch on East Shore Drive on an 11-passenger pontoon boat at 4pm and tour the length of the lake. The Tin Mountain naturalist on board will discuss the natural and cultural history of the area, identify wildlife and ecological features of the landscape, and answer questions. Binoculars will be available on board. Passengers are encouraged to dress appropriately for weather conditions that may change rapidly. We suggest water, sunscreen, hats, and an extra layer. Due to the limited space on the cruises, reservations are required. Please call Tin Mountain at 447-6991 to reserve your space. Payment must be made at time of reservation.

Music Fest: Come out and enjoy an evening of music to support the Mount Washington Valley Rec Path. The big stage at the base of the North Slope will feature live music by the local bands JUNCO, The Riley Parkhurst Project, Rek'-lis and Shark Martin. Tickets are available online at cranmore.com or at the Cranmore ticket office. Doors open at 5pm, music starts at 6pm. Food and beverage will be available for purchase on Zip's Deck. All ticket proceeds benefit the MWV Rec Path - a multi use, 2.9 mile paved path that will run between Cranmore Mountain and Hemlock Lane.

Community Contra Dance: The Community Contra Dance Series hosted by Global Awareness Local Action (G.A.L.A.) is excited to announce a very special dance featuring The Moving Violations accompanied by renowned caller Dereck Kalish. This event is free and open to the public, made possible by the Cate Memorial Fund. The dance takes place at the Wolfeboro Town Hall's "Great Hall" from 7-10pm, with the first half hour dedicated to a brief overview of the basic steps of New England contra dance. Dances are a fun and energizing night out for all ages and abilities, even if you simply prefer to cheer the dancers on from the sidelines and enjoy the live musical performance. For more information call the office at 569-1500.

Yankee Ingenuity: Stories of Headstrong and Resourceful People: Jo Radner will share entertaining stories of historical tales about New Englanders who have used their wits to solve problems and create inventions at 7pm in the Madison Library Chick room. A New Hampshire Humanities Program, this is free and open to the public. Call 367-8545 for more information.
